Gen. McKensen Says to Win in the Serbian Campaign He Must Have Large Reinforcements, and Get Them Quick—Athens Says the Nish Railroad Has Not Been Cut and a Train Is Expected Over It Bringing First Wounded French Soldiers From Bulgarian Engagements—French Repulse German Attacks With Hand Grenades—Italy Has Declared War on Bulgaria—Allies Are to Send Large Reinforcements to the Balkans—British Premier Is Ill—Russia Places Big Munitions Contracts Here—Germans Take Serbian Town—British Submarine Sinks Two German Steamers.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Oct. 19.—Three German attacks with hand grenades last night northeast of Beuzec were completely repulsed by the French, says the official report.

The Austro-Germans occupying Belgrade appear to have advanced more than fifteen miles south of the city, but the outcome of the Bulgarian and Serbian fighting along the Nish railway is not known.

A group of French aviators on October 17 bombarded the German aviation field at Burelincourt and the hangars were demolished.

Athens denies the Nish railway has been cut, as it is expected a train will arrive with the first wounded French soldiers in the Bulgarian engagements.

Field Marshal von Mackensen, who is in charge of the Serbian invasion, is reported to have notified the authorities that he could not accomplish the task unless he receives heavy reinforcements immediately.

CONTRACTS LET BY NAVY DEPARTMENT

Jobs Were Awarded for Sixteen Submarines and Six Destroyers to Be Built Soon.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Oct. 19.—Contracts for sixteen submarines and six destroyers were awarded Monday by the Navy Department. One destroyer will be built at the Norfolk Navy Yard and one at Mare Island, Cal. Six of the submarines will be built on the Pacific coast. The Bremerton (Wash.) and the Portsmouth (N. H.) Navy Yards will build one.

Army plans, it was learned late Monday, include the expenditure of $188,000,000 during the next four years on coast defenses and the creation of a huge reserve of rifles, field guns, machine guns, howitzers and ammunition. The War Department will ask this year for $26,000,000 for the reserve supply program and $20,000,000 for coast defenses, which includes new fortifications and the thorough modernization of present defenses.

More than $48,000,000 of the $72,000,000 increase over last year's appropriation bill will be devoted to these purposes, leaving $24,000,000 to be expended on the creation of a new army of over a million trained men, the plan is expected to produce within six years.

MEXICAN BANDITS IN DARING TRAIN ROBBERY

Was Among Most Daring and Bloodiest Train Robberies in the Southwest—Twenty Bandits Were Engaged in the Robbery—Two Are Dead, Four Wounded and One Dying.

[By Associated Press.]
Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 19.—One of the most daring and bloodiest train robberies of the Southwest was staged last night at Olmito, seven miles north of here, when twenty Mexicans claiming to be followers of Luis de la Rosa, the bandit leader, held up a southbound St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico train, and as a result two are dead, four wounded and one dying. The train was moving at a fast rate, making up lost time. The bandits effected the train's stopping by loosening one of the rails and jerking it aside with a heavy wire from the cover of the brush. As the train reached the point, the engine, baggage, mail and express cars jumped the track.

The robbery was conducted by five or six Mexicans clad in khaki uniforms. Outside some fifteen Mexicans kept up a constant firing, apparently over the cars.

The alarm was given by a discharged United States soldier, who ran three miles to give the alarm.

Being but three miles from the Rio Grande, the robbers were afforded an easy escape. Three troops of cavalry and two infantry companies rushed in pursuit. One State soldier was killed and his shoes removed by the bandits.

Not a great deal of money was taken, although one man claimed losing $250, after concealing $50 under the seat.

When the Mexicans entered the train they started firing at three soldiers in the front portion of the smoking car and one of them was killed. The engineer was killed under the engine and two soldiers are among the wounded. The others escaped injury by hiding under the seats and in the compartments.

The bandits were nervous on entering the car, but seeing how badly frightened the passengers were, became encouraged and shouted "Viva Carranza! Viva Pizana!" Pizana is a co-leader of bandits with de la Rosa. It was said some of the bandits were barefooted, and these are believed to be Huasteco Indians, serving in General Popen's Matamoros garrison. One of the wounded men claimed he saw Luis de la Rosa among the bandits.

People don't seem to care how you get your money; they are more interested in how you are going to spend it.

ENGLAND MUST HAVE 3,000,000 MORE MEN

Director of British Recruiting Declares It Is Useless to Talk of Wearing Out Germany.

London, Oct. 19.—"Great Britain needs 3,000,000 more men by spring." This declaration was made Monday by Brigadier General Sir Eric Swayne, director of recruiting in the northern command, in a speech at Hull. General Swayne estimated that Germany still has between 3,000,000 and 10,000,000 from the ages of 18 to 45 and that, therefore, it was useless to talk about wearing out Germany.
